

Welcome to Oslo Culture Night!

Oslo Culture Night (Oslo kulturnatt) is the city's tribute to and showcase of Oslo's rich and diverse cultural scene. Hundreds of venues open their doors with free entry, to create something unique and special for you to experience throughout the night. And don't forget, venues and performers are here for us, all year round!

Where: Performances and events take place throughout Oslo, from the city center to the suburbs, with the heart of the event being the Culture Night Square at Jernbanetorget by the central station.

When: Friday September 15th. There are varying opening hours for each venue and performance, from early morning till late at night.

Plan it well: Pick out your favorite venues and performances using our interactive online planning tool at oslokulturnatt.no

Admission: Free entry to all venues and performances. Note that certain venues will have limited capacity and require advance booking, this will be specified in our program online.
